

The figure consists of eight 5x5 dot grids arranged vertically, illustrating the construction of a 5x5 square. The sequence is as follows:

- Grid 1: A single dot in the center (row 3, column 3).
- Grid 2: The center dot with four dots added at (2,3), (4,3), (3,2), and (3,4).
- Grid 3: The previous grid with four more dots added at (1,3), (5,3), (3,1), and (3,5).
- Grid 4: The previous grid with four more dots added at (2,2), (4,4), (2,4), and (4,2).
- Grid 5: The previous grid with four more dots added at (1,2), (5,2), (2,1), and (2,5).
- Grid 6: The previous grid with four more dots added at (1,1), (5,1), (1,5), and (5,5).
- Grid 7: The previous grid with four more dots added at (2,3), (4,3), (3,2), and (3,4).
- Grid 8: The final 5x5 square, completely filled with dots.
